A Specific for Hooping-Cough. A Specific for Hooping-Cough.

It is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jeiferson. Shelby, and Oldhum, that I have a remedy that effectually cures flooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are caudid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and full to sleep a deep-rooted preindice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficiency for one child. This medicine can be conveyed to any part of the United States by express for a mere trille. These are reflections suggested to our mind in perusing the very able report of Dr. Sutton; Indl forfeit, to name at the post, either mile or for its value must strike every one who will give it ever so slight an examination. Its of 1860, or over the Woodlawn Course at Loutables embrace statistical information upon the two great epochs in the life of every man -the period when we first took up the wail of helpless infancy, as prophetic of the storms that assail mature manhood, and also that at which we received a help meet, as Adam "his fair spouse," and and finally and more fully, the termination of the drama-death-which comes to all men, but comes to none without serious and solemn anxieties. The long columns of figures stand like the lines of a funeral pageant, and as we glance from "birth" to "death," we are reminded that "few and short are the days of man."

We have not space to go into a protracted examination of this admirable report; but we feel an excusable pride that it is the result of the enlightened liberality of our own State, and is only another instance in which Kentucky has taken precedence of her sisters of the West in promoting the interests of her people. As she was the first of the Western States to embark in railroads and other internal improvements, so she leads the advance in this department; and there is nothing marks the progress of advancement more surely than the production of works like the one under review.

has been earefully prosecuted in England for centuries, and the destruction of such record by some untoward event has led to endless difficulties; and we can recall instances in our own country where such a record would have been invaluable. One we lately heard occurs to us, where the absence of such evidence was nearly costing a valuable estate to a family, and except that it was accidentally remembered by a very old man that he was in her grandfather's house at the time of her birth, she would contingency that may happen to the posterity of any man, and while all men are careful to preserve evidences of the title to their houses and their lands, that their children may not be annoyed by uncertainty, it would seem but that no uncertainty should arise as to the birth of their children which entitles them to this

So likewise there is great satisfaction and a permanent value in having a record kept of every marriage that is solemnized in the State. There is at this time a lovely woman, the widow of an officer of high rank in the army, who has been endeavoring and litigating for years to gain possession of her father's estate, and the whole yist of the matter lies in the fact whether her father and mother were married at the time of her birth; but there being no record of such marriage, and all the witnesses having died, she is deprived of her patrimony, and the courts have pronounced sentence of bastardy against her, although the title of her father to this property has never been questioned. The lawyers are all familiar with cases arising from the uncertainty of marriage, and except that it is a fruitful source of profit to them in their profession, would urge the continuance of a record.

If there is value in preserving a record of births and marriages, as we have attempted to show, we think there will be no difficulty in persuading even the most skeptical of the beneficial results that grow out of recording recent election in Louisiana indicate that the and publishing an account of the diseases that State has gone for the Democracy by a large prey upon, and the deaths that occur among, our population. Proclamation by the Governor. COMMONWEALTH OF KENTICKY, 1

Executive Department.

Another abundant harvest has been gathered; another year of multiplied blessings is fast drawing to a close. The labors of the farmer, the mechanic, the manufacturer, and the merchant, the professional man and the man of science, have been abundantly rewarded; commerce has revived, trade has improved, and thrift is apparent everywhere throughout the land. Neither war nor pestilence nor famine has afflicted us. Peace, plenty, and health have blessed a free, prosperons, and happy people. Providence has showered His blessings upon us as individuals, as a State as a nation. We should return to Him the homage of grateful hearts. In the eager pursuit of pleasure, of fortune, or of fame-in the excitement of our daily occupations-in the multiform pursuits of life, we are too apt to forget Iliiu from whom these bouncies come. Acknowledging no sovereign but Iliiu, let us recognize the venerable custom of the "lewish Feast of Weeks appointed by Jehovai for his chosen people." Rio Grande Pronties-Startling News,

The Corpus Christi Ranchero, of the 7th inst., published at 3 P. M., announces from information received through two cirizens of Corpus Christi, members of the bar, that the town and surrounding covercy are insimminent danger from Corti-uas and his hand. The Ranchero says:

entire Mexican population, on both sides of the Rio Grande, are up in arms, advancing upon us to Chapin, Rep., for Canal Commissioner. murder every white inhabitant and to reconquer the country as far as the Colorado river. have this information upon the uffidavits of Messrs. Thomas and White, two respectable cititens of Cameron county, who, with their lamilies, had just maraculously escaped from the clutches of one of the Lieutenants of Cortinas, and taken refuge at the rancho of Judge Love."

Inquir agent, was arraigned this morning before the Spreme Court, on a charge of adulterating the State liquor. He pleaded not guilty, and was held in $5,000 for trial.

Messrs. Thomas and White say: On Monday, the 31st day of Dotober last, at their Rancho, about five miles this side of Arro-vo Colorado, (100 miles distant from Corpus Christi,) they were suddenly attacked by a force of more than 100 men belonging to the Cortinas band, apparently led by Pancho Trevimo and Henry Cline. They sacked and destroyed the Rancho, drove off the stock, and carried away as prisoner Juan Villareal. The order was to murder the deponents and their families, but all succeeded in making their escape through the sur-rounding dense chaparral.

Under the command of Pedro Villareal, a com-pany of more than 100 men had crossed from Mexico to join Cortinas, and these, as well as the other Mexican forces, were carrying aloft the Mexican colors. Cortinas had 450 men in eamp, and as many more on scouts throughout the coun try, to intercept all communications with the beseiged in Brownsville, where were only about 50 reliable men under arms, but allof whom were worn out with fatigue. On the day of the attack on their Ranch, from 10 A. M. to sundown, they, at intervals, distinctly heard the liring of cannon in the direction of Brownsville.

To this statement is added the following from Messrs. J. O'Connor, R. D. Love, J. A. Ware, John B. Davis and J. A. E. Randolph, citizens of Nucces and San Patricio counties, who were at Judge Love's rancho, when Mr W. D. Thomas, with his wife deaplytes and son early Mr Value. with his wife, daughter and son, and Mr. Nothaniel White, came from Rio Gaande and made the above declaration under affidavit.

We are satisfied that our frontier on the Rio Grande is in a state of war, and that Brownsville. with its American population, has either tallen into the hands of Cortinus and his men, who are supported and sustained by the Mexican popula-tion beyond the river, or is in great danger of being captured. The Mexican flag is flying from g staff four miles above Brownsville.

foregoing affidavits of Thomas and White, so far as the number of Cortinus' hand is concerned. It further states that Capt. Kennedy and Nickles are dead, and J. F. Georges is a prisoner, and that the people of Rio Grande City were in daily expectation of another attack.

These statements from different quarters force us to conclude that an actual state of war exists on our frontier, which is entirely without protection, and its immediate defense devolves upon the citizens of Nueces and San Antonio rivers.

which are nearest to the frontier. It is necessary that our citizens turn out to defend our common country, and do it promptly. A meeting of our citizens is called this morn ing at 8 o'clock to devise means for the defense of our town. Capt. Tohin, with eighty men, is advancing upon Brownsville, but has to meet a lorce of about seven hundred well armed Mexieans. It is essential to reinforce Capt. Tobin. RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- On Friday morning last, a man named D. B. Hayman, left this place for Cynthiana, walking along the railroad track. When near Kiser's he laid or fell down on the track, where, being drunk, he remained until the upward freight train came along. The engineer saw him, but not in time to stop the train, and it passed over him, cutting off both legs, just above the ankles. The limbs were amputated, one above and the other below the knee.
